ABOUT ME

Alexis Attah is a fashion stylist originally from Dallas, Texas. She has recently received her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Fashion Styling and has also studied abroad at Kingston University in the UK while focusing on Editorial Styling, Product Styling, & Visual Merchandising. From her love of art, clothing, and accessorizing beginning at such a young age, she has now taken the stance on becoming the stylist she's always wanted to blossom into. After experiencing the beauty of London culture, Alexis is now more than ready to get into the real world and experience fashion at its finest.
